Dear Rashid,

Thank you for your last email. I'd like to tell you about shopping in my country, Kuwait. In the past, there were few, old shops. Kuwaiti people didn't need to buy everything. They got meat and eggs from their animals, and grow vegetables in their gardens. Today, there are lots of new shops, markets and restaurants in modern buildings. People can go there and buy food and clothes at the same place. They can also eat delicious food at the restaurants. Their children can enjoy playing games there. Now, shopping in Kuwait is interesting.
