Read the following passage then answer the question

Most of the passengers were asleep on the eight o'clock train. It was already half past nine. I was sleeping while my wife was reading a story. My little son was eating an ice-cream. Suddenly, we were all shocked to hear a loud cry from a young lady. She screamed "Help! Help! He's going to kill me. He has a gun". Many people ran towards her. We asked her where the murderer was. She looked around for a few moments, then at us and finally said "What a terrible dream!"

We comforted her saying that she was safe. A young man got her a cold drink. When she felt better we returned to our seats. An old man was sitting beside her. He kept talking to her all through the last hour of the journey. When we got off the station, I said to the man "It was kind of you to keep talking with her to help her to be quiet ".he said, "Oh, no, I only wanted to prevent her from sleeping and having another dream." It was really a good idea.
